Event Overview

This year's Celebration Gala honors 35 years of Life House's commitment to reconnecting youth ages 14-24 to their dreams and ensuring no young person is left homeless, alone, uncared for, or fending for themselves.

Building on the success of our first annual Celebration Gala in 2025, which welcomed more than 200 attendees, this special evening will celebrate decades of impact through the voices and stories of those who have shaped, and been shaped by, our work. Together, we will reflect on the past, celebrate the present, and invest in a future where all young people can thrive.

About Life House

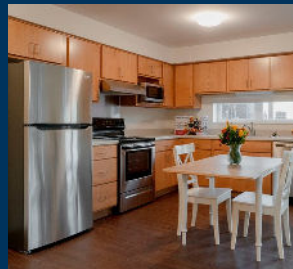

Life House serves more than 800 teens, young adults, and young families each year with comprehensive programming, including a drop-in center, housing resources, free mental health and chemical dependency services, parenting support, and connection to education and employment opportunities.

Our mission is to reconnect youth with their dreams through youth-led programs and a dedicated staff, that provide wraparound support on youth's journey stability and self-sufficiency. All services are free, confidential, voluntary, and flexible.
